

Gravity Well - Reference

DrumScribe | quarter = 72 4/4

1

Drum notation for staff 1. Above the staff, there are four vertical stems with 'x' marks at the top, representing cymbals. The first stem has an 'x' at the bottom. Below the staff, there are three vertical stems with 'o' marks at the bottom, representing drums. The first stem has an 'o' at the bottom.

2

Drum notation for staff 2. Above the staff, there are four vertical stems with 'x' marks at the top, representing cymbals. The third stem has an 'x' at the bottom. Below the staff, there are three vertical stems with 'o' marks at the bottom, representing drums. The first stem has an 'o' at the bottom.

3

Drum notation for staff 3. Above the staff, there are four vertical stems with 'x' marks at the top, representing cymbals. The third stem has an 'x' at the bottom. Below the staff, there are three vertical stems with 'o' marks at the bottom, representing drums. The first stem has an 'o' at the bottom.

4

Drum notation for staff 4. Above the staff, there are four vertical stems with 'x' marks at the top, representing cymbals. The first stem has an 'x' at the bottom. Below the staff, there are three vertical stems with 'o' marks at the bottom, representing drums. The first stem has an 'o' at the bottom.

5

Drum notation for staff 5. Above the staff, there are four vertical stems with 'x' marks at the top, representing cymbals. The third stem has an 'x' at the bottom. Below the staff, there are three vertical stems with 'o' marks at the bottom, representing drums. The first stem has an 'o' at the bottom.

6

Drum notation for staff 6. Above the staff, there are four vertical stems with 'x' marks at the top, representing cymbals. The third stem has an 'x' at the bottom. Below the staff, there are three vertical stems with 'o' marks at the bottom, representing drums. The first stem has an 'o' at the bottom.